Vacation - Fun - And Rules

If you go to a summer resort for your vacation, you'll find the following rules helpful, and a good time will be had by all!

Take along the right clothes for the type of place where, you will spend your holiday. Be sure you have good sports wear and a summer evening wardrobe consisting of one, or more, dancing frocks that are youthful and cool. Avoid over-ladies of the ball and racket elaborate evening attire.

Pay your way. Just because a lone man at a summer resort likes to dance or go riding or climbing to a restaurant some distance away with you, you have no willing or financially able to pay brief skirt .... for you too. Most young men have little money.

PAY OWN CHEQUES

So pay your own cheques. the "nice young man" know that you are a modern vacation girl and not a gold digger. You will have a far more gay time and be tiny fan brooch of oblong more independent.

> If at first you find little to do or find it difficult to break into the young crowd, don't sit in obvious boredom or joining the gossip group. This will mark , you uninteresting and keep people away from you.

Go away for a pleasant vacation, and to you single "gals" not to get a husband. If the men about you suspect you of being more pleats, the outfit is dea husband hunter, you will avoided. Men on a vacation out for fun, not for matrimony.

HAZARDOUS 20,000 - MILE TREK ACROSS INDIA

comfortably reading this in the paper. a film unit is making a hazardous 20,000-mile motor - trek across India to photograph material for another of the popular "World Window" subjects released through United Artists.

The expedition is led by Count and Countess Keller, who have with them Hans Nieter as director; John Hanau, production chief; Jack Cardiff, the technicolor cameraman, and a crew of other technicians.

In a letter to the U.A. offices in New York, Count Keller writes: We have just completed an 800-mile ride in 25 hours without a break, over desert vast plains and mountains, and through jungles, with wild beasts scuttling out of the beams of our headlights. The unit had frequently to cut its way through the jungle with long knives, looking out the while for deadly snakes.

"On another occasion," he adds, "our cameraman encountered a panther, but a few feet away - fortunately, without harm to himself and was lucky enough to get some close-up shots of a fight between a make and a mon-2005."

Monkey "Invasion

On the return journey, it seems. when they got back to their after a short expedition. found that it had been invaded by monkeys which had eaten all the food they carried. At lext village, the only they could get, were cocoanuts bananas. Now, they do not like that particular kind of food any more.

To add to the other troubles of the enterprise, every member of the expedition has been down with majaria.

Perhaps "armchair travel." provided by "World Windows" in the theatre, is bes after all!

MR. FRAMPTON'S

Bar Loses One Of Its Richest Personalities

The Bar has lost one of its richest personalities through the death of Mr. Walter Frampton.

Mr. Frampton was a man of massive bulk with a choleric complexion, a rolling gait, a broad, deep voice, and a warmth of humour which to counsel. endeared him solicitors and clients alike

Few men at the Bar could compete with him for shrewdness, for worldly wisdom, for ingenuity in extracting a client from a tight corner, no matter what his trouble. His closest friend and his equal in bulk and wisdom was the late Sir Henry Curtis-Bennett. And the pair of giants used to make a formidable impression as they sat together in court hobnobbing over ticklish case.

His Mistake On one occasion at the Old Bailey Mr. Frampton's impassioned speech considerably reduced the sentence of a guilty client. The next prisoner who was just coming up from the cells heard the speecch but only had a view of Mr. Frampton's broad "robed bark.

The case ended. Mr. Frampton went out of court, and another large figure took his place. The prisoner was appearing on what is known as a "dock brief," and the judge told him that he might come down to the front of the court and choose whichever counsel he liked.

"Oh," said the prisoner, pointing to the massive figure, "I don't need to come down. I'll have that Big 'Un there." At that the figure turned round and revealed herself as a well-known lady barrister. "Help!" said the prisoner dismally, "I've gone and chosen a blinking woman.".

CLLOW the example of Lupino Lane, and of the many "stars" who declare that the best way to maintain vitality and health is to drink a cup of delicious 'Ovaltine' every night. A bedtime cup of 'Ovaltine' not only soothes the nerves and makes sound sleep sure - but it builds up new energy and vigour while you sleep.

Scientifically prepared from the finest of Nature's protective and restorative foods, Ovaltine is supremely rich in all the nutritive elements needed, to promote perfect health of body, brain and nerves.

But remember - it must be 'Ovaltine'. Imitations may be made to look the same, but there are very important differences. For quality, healthgiving value and economy, 'Ovaltine' stands in a class alone. Reject substitutes.

A Special Announcement by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffry Northcote, and a detailed explanation by the Attorney-General, Hon. Mr. C. G. Alabaster, featured the first reading of the Compulsory Service Bill at yesterday's fully-attended meeting of the Legislative Council.

His Excellency dealt with the reasons for the enactment of this legislation and the general principles. underlying it, as well as the classes of British subjects affected by it, and, in explaining that, whereas it was intended at the present time to apply its pro-"visions only to British citizens of European descent, remarked that he "was fully aware that, should the need arise, many battalions of excellent soldiers could be obtained here on the voluntary system from other British subjects.

The Attorney-General his speech outlined clearly the processes of enrolment envisaged by the Bill.

The honourable and learned member, the Attorney-General will explain the intended processes of the measure but I take this opportunity to mention two or three points connected with or arising out of it.

In the first place, although the bill is drawn in wider terms, it is intended at the present time to apply its provisions only to British citizens of European descent: the recently compiled register persons of that class being used as the basis of operations. It is for that reason that the procedure of enrolment is directed towards individuals and not classes of persons, as is the case in the United Kingdom.

IMPORTER OF PIGS DISCHARGED

A summons brought by the Sanitary Dept. against Yeung Hing-lee, at the Kowloon Court, for failure to comply with a notice to cease keeping swine in Po Kong Village, was dismissed by Mr. E. Himsworth, at the Kowloor Court yesterday, after Inspector Bowden" had informed the Magistrate that the order had since been complied with.

Mr. M. A. da Silva, appearing for Yeung, said that the detendant was an importer of pigs and had difficulty in complying immediately with the notice as he was regularly receiving shipments of pigs from consigners at Swabue. He has made an application for space to keep the pigs at Mataukok, or Mongkok.

CHINA'S TENDER POLICY UNCHANGED

CHUNGKING, July 20 (Central, —The Chinese Government will continue to maintain the legal tender in accordance with its established currency policy which is compatible with national economy and can freely provide exchange for legitimate trade, declares a spokesman of the Ministry of Finance in statement issued last night in regard to the slump of the exchange value of the Chinese dollars in the Shanghai market.

The spokesman says that this policy has been repeatedly relterated by the Ministry of Finance and there is no change whatsoever. Since the start of the war, the spokesman says, the Chinese Government has tried its best to provide every facility for exchange Prior to March, 1938, exchange could be freely bought and sold at official rates. Since then, as a result of the establishment of the Japanese-sponsored "Hua Hsing Commercial Bank, the Chinese Government has been compelled to impose restrictions on exchange, but allotments have been duly made for all legitimate requirements.

Japan's Moves

In the meantime, Japan has re sorted to other measures to undermine the legal tender. In addition to Japanese army notes of the bogus Federal Reserve Bank, notes have also been issued by the Hua Hsing Commercial Bank. This has caused a sudden increase of notes in circulation and greatly compilcated the Chinese currency, the spokesman states.

The Japanese have also been purchasing foreign exchange with legal tender notes confiscated from the Chinese people; obtained in Customs receipts and squeezed out by various methods in the "occupied" areas. Consequently, there has been a reduction in the amount of foreign "exchange which would have been sufficient to meet | legitimate requirements

PEIPING, JULY 20 (REUTER)-MOB ATTACKS ON BRITISH PROPERTY AT TSINAN ARE RE-PORTED BY JAPANESE SOURCES.

These state that yesterday a large Chinese mob entered the offices of a British shipping cossture and equipment.

Two other British firms Duniop's and a lumber company quickly closed the shutters of their premises, whereupon the mob attacked them, but before much damage was done, Japanese gendarmes arrived and dispersed the mob.

Japanese reports state that Britons from Kaifeng, believed to number six, who were recently

The threat is already having effects on the more nervous Chinese employees.

Mission Schools Attacked The Japanese-controlled press continues to attack British mission schools, charging them with 'cultural aggression."

Japanese reports declare that 21 Britons left Kalleng on July 17 after an ultimatum from the Chinese authorities there. Japanese residents in Peiping held a mass meeting fate last night and passed a resolu-

EXPEDITED CONSTRUCTION The manner in which the 1939 programme of naval construction is being expedited is shown by the fact that contracts have already been placed for 46 out of the 73 ships (excluding miscellaneous small craft) authorized in the programme.

At the corresponding period of last year only five vessels of the 1933 programme had been ordered—three submarines and two river gunboats. The 46 ships include one aircraft-carrier, 16 destroyers, 22 escort vessels, four minesweepers, one river gunboat, and two boom defence vessels.

The orders which have still to be placed are for two battleships, four cruisers, four submarines, six minesweepers, one fast minelayer, six motor torpedo-bosts, a depot ship for M.T.B.s. a fleet target service tub, a hospital ship, and a Royal yacht which is to be capable of service as hospital ship, in manuface hospital ship in war-time.

MILK-TRADE'S BEST YEAR

Prices Said To Be High Enough

After the chairman, Mr. Thomas Baxter, had recorded the best year FOR BRITISH SHIPS of progress since the Milk Marketing scheme was started, a minority of producers attending the annual meeting at Central Hall, Westminster, voted for a reduction in the salaries of the Board; This was defeated by 141 to 67.

Mr. Baxter said 1,080,000,000 gallons of milk were sold in the year, an "increase of nearly 69,000,000 gallons-6.8 per cent, over 1937-8. The whole of this had found a market,

In four years production had gone up by 100,000,000 gallons, and nearly all the increase has been consumed in the liquid market "the only remunerative market for producers."

The total realised for the year week, and £5,292,000 over the British ships. previous year.

"Continuing, Mr. Baxter said that an order for a more definite and rigid scheme of regulation of imported processed milks would be operative on June 19. Milk prices were high enough. and the only reason for higher prices would be some extraordinary increase in the cost of production.

He hoped that when the details of the Government's long-period policy for the milk industry were published they" would be more satisfactory than "those in the Sir Robert Craigie "to press the abortive Milk Industry Bill.

Objection To Control Methods Mr. Cummings, of Rugby, objected to the Board's method of dealing with producers and "sell- HONGKONG ing up their homes and furniture for the money they owed the Board." They should send men of ability, not men with boxing gloves, to speak to farmers," he commented. Mr. Bowler, of Cheshire, suggested that ice-cream manufacturers should be compelled to use a stipulated quantity of milk. He was told, in reply, by Mr. Sidney Foster, the general manager, that the Board approved the

Smuggling Reduced In North China

JAPANESE PERMITS

LONDON, July 20 (Reuter)-In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. R.A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, "stated that the most recent reports received by Lord Halifax indicated that smuggling in North China had been reduced to negligible proportions, but that no reply had been received from the Japanese Government to the latest representa-

Mr. Butler said that Sir Robert Craigle, the British Ambassador in Tokyo, would continue to press the matter in regard to the action of the so-called Nanking Reformed Government in endéavouring to insist on certificates from the Japanese authorities before clearance was £52,613,790, over £1,000,000 a to inland ports being granted to Important Considerations Sir John Wardlaw Milne (Con) asked if the British Government had acquiesced in the Japanese demand and whether it would not amount to a recognition of the Reformed Government and also amount to agreeing that the Japanese might manipulate the customs as they liked?

Mr. Butler replied that these were important considerations in Lord Halifax's mind and that was why instructions had been sent to matter.

£10.000 Gift To R.A.F.

LORD ROTHERMERE, BRI-TAIN'S FIRST AIR MINISTER (1917)-18), HAS GIVEN £10,-000 TO ENCOURAGE ROYAL AIR FORCE SPORTS, IT WAS ANNOUNCED ON JULY 7.

In 1935 Lord Rothermere presented to the Air Ministry "Britain First" airplane, which hell developed at his own expense. This type of plane eventually became the modern Blenheim bomber.

. Immense Progress In a letter to Sir Kingsley Wood. the Air Minister, Lord Rothermere says ---

"I have been observing with great interest and pleasure the immense progress which has been made in Royal Air Porce expansion, and I consider that this would be an opportune moment for giving effect to my desire to commemorate in some way my early association with the Royal Air Force

"With that object in view, I will ask you to accept the sum of £10,000, which I would like you to regard as a contribution towards the welfare of officers and men. particularly in connection with their athletic and recreational activities."

Cape Town's New Harbour

LONDON, July 10 (By Air Mail)-Almost one-third of the reciamation work on Cape Town's new harbour and foreshore scheme has been completed.

It is estimated that 11,000,000 cubic yards of material will be required to fill in the 363 acres ofsea that will eventually form the new foreshore.

In the 13 months since the work started the Dutch dredging contra tors have deposited 3,800,000 cubic yards of material over the

Portions of the cocoons purchased from the occupied areas in Chekiang by local silk filatures which were detained some time ago by the "Central China Silk Corporation." have now been released, while negotiations are still being continued to effect the release of cocoons detained in the Klangsu occupied areas. The 46 silk filatures in Shanghai which had been compelled to suspend operations owing to an acute shortage of cocoons, are now making preparations to resume their operations.

The market opened 1/18 of a	cent hi	gher for all	deliveries as compared with Tuesday's closing quotations. In accordance with conditions prevailing in London and New York the market ruled quietly steady throughout the day. A notable feature was the good demand from New York for immediate and near deliveries, but dealers and speculators observed a more cautious attitude due to less favourable reports on the international political situation.

Furthermore, uncertainties with regard to the approaching quota-announcement by the I.R.R. Committee exercised a restraining influence upon speculative activity. Consequently only a moderate volume of business for more distant deliveries was transacted, whilst price-fluctuations were confined to a very narrow range.

"The market moved up on trade buying. Prices showed an inclination to move further ahead, but reports of favourable weather retarded the advance.

NEW YORK RUBBER

A technical reaction was witnessed, with some liquidation in evidence. Interest, however, was lacking.

It is reported that the French Government is negotiating for large purchase of near deliveries.

CHICAGO WHEAT

The market declined on realizing and liquidation. Conditions on the whole, were narrow, and featureless.

ANGLO - U.S. TRADE PACT

TO BE DISCUSSED AT RUBBER TALKS

LONDON July 20 (Reuter) — Discussing the Anglo-American barter agreement the "Times" says it is bound to come up for discussion at next Tuesday's meeting of the International Rubber Regulation Committee.

. As the effect on the agreement will necessarily be the release of larger exports it will clearly influence the question of the regular quota permissible for years in the last quarter.

While rubber producers are perfectly ready in the interests of the creation of suitable emergency stocks, to co-operate in practical arrangements they may be expected to press for safeguards against any dislocation which may be entailed in labour of market conditions.

SPANISH GOLD JUDGMENT

Renewed court proceedings about Spanish gold on deposit in the Bank of France were begun on Wednesday before the First Chamber of the Paris Civil Court although the French Government in the Berard-Jordana agreement O.B.E., to Nelson, and later, by the express decision of the Council of Ministers, had already agreed to return the gold to the Bank of Spain.

Siu Ying wife of a P.W.D. driver, was admitted to the Queen Mary Hospital at 11.30 a.m. on June 4 and died a few hours later. Her condition was very grave when admitted.

Dr. Naidu, of the Queen Mary INSTALLED GRAND Hospital, testified that there were no external injuries. Her abdonien was operated lupon and a good quantity of free blood, as much as six pints, was found. The uterus also revealed four months regnancy. Internally there were two ruptures in the uterus.

> In answer to Mr. Houston, Dr. Naidu said that instruments used for abortion were sometimes sharp and sometimes with edges like spoons. Injuries could be caused by such instruments if the operation was performed by an unskilled hand.

> It was possible, he said, that abortion would be self-performed,

LIVED HAPPILY

"Ip Kanizman, husband of the deceased, said that he lived happily with his wife and they had married for about 19, years. His wife complained of pains in the abdomen and, after having consulted Chinese doctors for several days, he took her to the hospital

He stated that he saw no reason why his wife should have restored to abortion. "She herself was fond of children" he said."

. Ip Kwok-man, aged 13, deceased's son, told the Court that his mother fell down one day while removing bed boards.

The three Chinese doctors whom deceased had consulted. were also called to give evidence.

SUIT BROUGHT FOR SEPARATE MAINTENANCE

Allegation Of Desertion

Hearing of a suit for separate maintenance brought by Ho Sap-yee against her husband, Shiu Hing-pul, alleging desertion and failure to provide for her and her child was commenced before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

The case for the complainant, who is represented by Mr. Hin-Shing Lo, is that on May 24 the defendant made her leave her home with her child as she objected to his taking a concubine.

The defendant, who is represented by Mr. H. A. da Silva, claims that the complainant is not his legal wife and the child is not his either by birth or adop-

Mr. Lo said that complainant was treated by her husband in a most i heartless manner. She had borrowed money from her lady friends to start him out in his candy-shop business, and he had repaid her by turning her and her child out into the street when she objected to his taking a concu-

NATIVE OF SHANGHAI

The defendant was a native of Shanghai, the complainant a native of Canton. They were married in Hongkong in 1925.

After a few days in the Colony. they left for Shanghai. Complainant had owned a house in Canton, inherited from her parents, and this she sold for $1,200. "With" this money they started a fruit business in Shanghai, which gave a comfortable living until the Shanghai War in 1932 caused them to flee from the Northern port and return to Hongkong.

Here they had to struggle for a small subsistence, the wife working for 30 cents a day as a papersorter to provide for her husband and child.

Later, she managed to borrow from a lady friend $50, and with this money she and defendant rented a blosk outside the Po Hing Theatre where they started a candy shop business under the name Ki Heng Tsun.

ANOTHER LOAN

Later, when Government assumed possession of the klosk. complainant managed to secure a loan again, obtaining from friends a sum of $3,000 with which they opened a store at No. 381, Nathan Road, ground floor, which traded also under the name Ki-Heng

Relations between the couple had been happy and affectionate until August, 1938, when the defendant told his wife he intended | H to take a concubine. She had objected strenuously to this

On May 3 last, the defendant had several guests in the house. Among them was a young and attractive Shanghai woman towards whom the complainant, believing this woman to be her husband's intended concubine, had behaved in a somewhat aloof manner.

The defendant later rebuked his wife for insulting his guests, and on May 14 she left the house with her daughter. An attempt had since been made at settlement through the S.C.A., but the defendant had promised to provide only $20 monthly towards the education of the child, and on the condition also that the offer would not be taken as an admission that the girl was his daughter, adopted or otherwise.

COMPLAINANTS EVIDENCE

was betrothed to the defendant 31st July. on : February 12, 1925, and the marriage took place on March 13, 1925. The go-betweens were Kwan A-chan, for her husband, and Wu Lin. for herself. There was a ceremony and exchange of Iai-si. etc. She was then 27, and her hushand 28.

After the complainants evidence, the case was adjourned.

Pang Muk, a boatman, was fined A fine of $25 was imposed on $70, at the Kowloon Court yester-
